(i) The Amount of Subsistence allowance may be increased by a suitable amount not exceeding fifty percent of the subsistence allowance admissible during the period of first six months, if, in the opinion of the said Authority, the period of suspension has been prolonged for reasons to be recorded in writing, not directly attributable to the Corporation servant.

(ii) The Amount of Subsistence allowance may be reduced by a suitable amount not exceeding fifty percent of the subsistence allowance admissible during the period of first six months, if in the opinion of the said Authority, the period of suspension has been prolonged for reasons, to be recorded in writing, directly attributable to the Corporation servant.

(iii) The amount of Dearness Allowance shall be based on the increase or decrease in the amount of Subsistence allowance as the case may be, admissible under Clause (i) and (ii) above.

(2) No payment under Sub-Regulation (i) shall be made unless the corporation Servant furnishes a certificate that he has not engaged in any other employment, business, profession or vocation.

Provided that in the case of a Corporation Servant where a penalty of removal or dismissal from service imposed upon a Corporation Servant under suspension is set aside in appeal or on review under these Regulations, and the case is remitted for further inquiry or action or with any other directions and if the order of suspension is deemed to have been continued in force on and from the date of original order of removal or dismissal and remain in force until further orders or where a penalty of removal or dismissal from service imposed upon a Corporation Servant is set aside or declared or rendered void in consequence or by a decision of a Court of Law and Disciplinary Authority on a consideration of the circumstances of the case decides to hold further inquiry against him on the allegations on which the penalty of removal or dismissal was originally imposed and if the Corporation servant is deemed to have been placed under suspension by the Disciplinary Authority from the date of the original order of removal or dismissal and continues to remain under suspension until further orders and who fails to produce such a certificate for any period or periods during which he is deemed to have been placed or to continue to be under suspension he shall be entitled to the Subsistence allowance and other allowances equal to the amount by which his earnings during such period or periods as the case may be fall short of amount of Subsistence allowance and other allowances that would otherwise be admissible to him but when the Subsistence allowance and other allowances admissible to him are equal to or less than the amount earned by him nothing in this proviso shall apply to him.

(6) (a) When a Corporation servant who has been dismissed, removed or suspended is reinstated or would have been reinstated but for his retirement on superannuation while under suspension, the Authority competent to order reinstatement shall consider and make orders as to-

(i) The wages or pay and allowances which shall be paid to the Corporation servant for the period of his absence from duty or for the period of suspension ending with the date of his retirement on superannuation, as the case may be; and

(ii) Whether or not the said period shall be treated as period spent on duty.

(b) (i) Where such Competent Authority holds that the Corporation servant has been exonerated or, in the case of suspension under this Regulation that it was unjustifiable the Corporation servant shall be granted the full wages or pay to which he would have been entitled, had he not been dismissed, removed or suspended, as the case may be, together with any allowances of which he was in receipt immediately prior to his dismissal, removal or suspension or may have been sanctioned subsequently and made applicable to Corporation servant of his class.

(ii) In all other cases, the Corporation servant shall be granted such proportion of such wages or pay and allowances as such Competent Authority may direct.

Provided that the payment of allowances under this clause shall be less than subject to all other conditions subject to which such allowance are admissible.

Provided further that the wages or pay and allowances granted under this sub-clause shall not be less than subsistence and other allowances admissible under Sub-Regulation(5).

(c)(i) In a case falling under Sub-clause (i) of clause (b), the period of absence from duty shall for all purposes be treated as a period spent on duty.

(ii) In a case falling under sub-clause(ii) of clause(b) the period of absence from duty shall not be treated as period spent on duty unless the Competent Authority specifically directs, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that it is shall be so treated for any specific purpose.

22. Procedure for imposing minor penalties:- (1) Subject to the provisions of Sub-Regulation (26) of Regulation-23 and Regulation-15, no order imposing on a Corporation servant any of the penalties specified in clause (i) to (viii) of Regulation-18 shall be made except after-

(a) Informing the Corporation servant in writing of the proposal to take action against him and of the imputations of misconduct or misbehavior on which it is proposed to be taken, and given him a reasonable opportunity of making such representation as he may wish to make against the proposal;

(b) Holding an inquiry in the manner laid down in Sub-Regulations (3) to 23) of Regulation-23 in every case in which the Disciplinary Authority is of the opinion that such inquiry is necessary;

(c) Taking the representation, if any, submitted by the Corporation servant under clause-(a) and the record of inquiry, if any, held under clause (b) into consideration;

(d) recording a finding on each imputation of misconduct or misbehavior;

(2) The record of the proceedings in such cases shall include-

(i) a copy of the intimation to the Corporation servant of the proposal to take action against him;

(ii) his representation, if any;

(iii) the evidence produced during the inquiry; if any;
(iv) the findings on each imputation of misconduct or misbehavior; and (v) the orders on the case together with reasons therefore.

23. Procedure for imposing major penalties:- (1) No order imposing any of the penalties specified in clauses (ix) and (x) of Regulation-18 shall be made except after an inquiry, held, as far as may be in the manner provided in this Regulation.

(2) Whenever the Disciplinary Authority is of the opinion that there are grounds for inquiring into the truth of any imputation of misconduct or misbehavior against a Corporation servant it may itself inquiry into or appoint under this Regulation an Authority to inquire into the truth thereof.

Explanation: Where the Disciplinary Authority itself holds the inquiry; any reference in Sub-Regulation (7) to (20) and in Sub-Regulation (22) to the Inquiring Authority shall be construed as a reference to the Disciplinary Authority.

(3) Where it is proposed to hold an inquiry against a Corporation servant under this Regulation the Disciplinary Authority shall draw up or cause to be drawn up-

(i) the substance of the imputation of misconduct or misbehavior into definite and distinct articles of charge;

(ii) a statement of the imputations of misconduct or misbehavior in support of each article of charge which shall contain-

(a) a statement of all relevant facts including any admission or confession made by the Corporation servant;

(b) a list of documents by which and a list of witnesses by whom, the article of charge are proposed to be sustained.

(4) The Disciplinary Authority shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Corporation servant a copy of the articles of charge, the statement of the imputations of misconduct or misbehavior and a list of documents and witnesses by which each article of charges is proposed to be sustained and shall require the Corporation servant to submit, within such time as may be specified a written statement of his defence and to state whether he desires to be heard in person.

(5) (a) On receipt of the written statement of defence, the Disciplinary Authority may itself inquire into such of the articles of charge as are not admitted, or if it considers it necessary so to do, appoint, under Sub-Regulation (2), an Inquiring Authority for the purpose and where all the articles of charge have been admitted by the Corporation servant in his written statement of defence, the Disciplinary Authority; shall record its findings on each charge after taking such evidence as it may think fit and shall act in the manner laid down in Sub Regulation (24) to (26).

(b) If no written statement of defence is submitted by the Corporation servant, the Disciplinary Authority may itself inquire into the articles of charge or may, if it considers it necessary to do so, appoint, under Sub-Regulation (2) an Inquiring Authority for the purpose.

(c) Where the Disciplinary Authority itself inquiries into any articles of charge or appoints an Inquiring Authority for holding an inquiry into such charge, it may, be an order, appoint a Corporation servant, to be known as the "Presenting Officer" to present on its behalf the case in support of articles of charge.

(6) The Disciplinary Authority shall, where it is not the Inquiring Authority, forward to the Inquiring Authority:-

(i) a copy of the articles of charge and the statement of imputations of misconduct or misbehavior;

(ii) a Copy of the written statement of defence, if any, submitted by the Corporation servant;

(iii) a copy of the statement of witnesses, if any, referred to in Sub-Regulation (3);

(iv) a copy of the order appointing the “Presenting Officer”.

(7) The Corporation servant shall appear in person before the Inquiring Authority on such day at such time within ten working days from the date of receipt by him of the articles of charge and the statement of imputations of misconduct or misbehavior, as the Inquiring Authority may by a notice in writing specify in this behalf, or within such further time not exceeding ten days, as Inquiring Authority may allow.

(8) The Corporation servant may take assistance of any other Corporation servant from the same Division or Unit where the accused corporation servant is working, to present the case on his behalf but may not engage a legal practitioner for the purpose.

(9) If the Corporation servant who has not admitted any of the articles of charge in his written statement of defence or has not submitted any written statement of defence, appears before Inquiring Authority such Authority shall ask him whether he is guilty or has any defence to make and if he pleads guilty of any of the articles of charge, the Inquiring Authority shall record the plea, sign the record, and obtain the signature of the Corporation servant thereon.

(10) The Inquiring Authority shall return a finding of guilt in respect of that articles of charge to which the Corporation servant pleads guilty.

(11) The Inquiring Authority, shall, if the Corporation servant fails to appear within the specified time or refuses or omits to plead, required the Presenting Officer to produce the evidence by which he proposes to prove the articles of charge, and shall adjourn the case to a later date not exceeding thirty days, after recording an order that the Corporation servant may, for the purpose of the preparing the defence.

(i) inspect within five days of the order or within such further time not exceeding five days as the Inquiring Authority may allow, the documents specified in the list referred to in Sub-Regulation (3);

(ii) submit a list of witnesses to be examined on his behalf.

Note- If the Corporation servant applies orally or in writing for the supply of copies of statements of witnesses mentioned in the list referred to in Sub-Regulation (3), the Inquiring Authority shall furnish him with such copies as early as possible and in any case not later than three days before the commencement of the examination of the witnesses on behalf of the Disciplinary Authority.

(iii) give notice within ten days of the order or within such further time not exceeding ten days as the Inquiring Authority may allow, for the discover or production of any documents which are in the possession of the Corporation but not mentioned in the list referred to in Sub-Regulation-(3).

Note- The Corporation servant shall indicate the relevance of the documents required by him to be discovered or produced by the Corporation.

(12) The Inquiring Authority shall, on receipt of the notice for the discovery or production of documents, forward the same of copies thereof to the Authority in whose custody of possession the documents are kept, with a requisition for the production of the documents by such date as may be specified in such requisition.

Provided that the Inquiring Authority may, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing refuse to requisition such of the documents as are, in its opinion, not relevant to the case.

(13) On receipt of the requisition referred to in sub-Regulation (21), every Authority having the custody of possession of the requisitioned documents shall produce the same before the Inquiring Authority.

Provided that if the authority having the custody or possession of the requisitioned documents is satisfied for reasons to be recorded in writing that the production of all or any such documents would be against the public interest, it shall inform the Inquiring Authority accordingly and the Inquiring Authority shall on being so informed, communicate the information to the Corporation servant and withdraw the requisition made by it for the production or discovery of such documents.

(14) On the date fixed for the inquiry, the oral and documentary evidence by which the articles of charge are proposed to be proved shall be produced by or on behalf of the Disciplinary Authority. The witnesses shall be examined by or on behalf of the Presenting Officer and may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the Corporation servant the Presenting Officer shall be entitled to re-examine the witnesses on any points on which they have been cross-examined, but not on any new matter, without the leave of the Inquiring Authority the Inquiring Authority may also put such questions to the witnesses at it thinks fit.

(15) If it shall appear necessary before the close of the case on behalf of the Disciplinary Authority, the Inquiring Authority may in its discretion, allow the Presenting Officer to produce evidence not included in the list given to the Corporation servant or may itself call for new evidence or recall and re-examine any witness and in such case the Corporation servant shall be entitled to have, if he demands it, a copy of the list of further evidence proposed to be produced and an adjournment of the inquiry for three clear days before the production of such new evidence, exclusive, of the day of adjournment and the day to which the inquiry adjourned. The Inquiring Authority shall give the Corporation servant an opportunity of inspecting such documents before they are taken on the record. The Inquiring Authority may also allow the Corporation servant to produce new evidence if it is of the opinion that the production of such evidence is necessary in the interests of justice.

Note- New evidence shall not be permitted or called for or any witness shall not be recalled to fill up any gap in the evidence. Such evidence may be called for only when there is an inherent lacuna or defect in the evidence, which has been produced originally.

(16) When the case of the Disciplinary Authority is closed, the corporation servant shall be required to state his defense, orally or in writing, as he may prefer. If the defence is made orally, it shall be recorded and the Corporation servant shall be required to sign the record. In either case a copy of the statement of defence shall be given to the Presenting Officer, if any, appointed.

(17) The evidence on behalf of the Corporation servant shall then be produced. The Corporation servant may examine himself in his own behalf if he so prefers. The witnesses produced by the Corporation servant shall then be examined and shall be liable to cross-examination, re-examination and examination by the Inquiring Authority according to the provisions applicable to the witnesses for the Disciplinary Authority.

(18) The Inquiring Authority, may, after the Corporation servant closes his case, and shall, if the Corporation servant has not examined himself, generally question him on the circumstances, appearing against him in the evidence for the purpose of enabling the Corporation servant to explain any circumstances appearing in the evidence against him.

(19) The Inquiring authority may, after the completion of the production of evidence, hear the Presenting Officer, if any, appointed, and the Corporation servant or permit them to file written briefs of their respective cases, if they so desire.

(20) If the Corporation servant to whom a copy of the articles of charge has been delivered, does not submit the written statement of defence on or before the date specified for the purpose or does not appear in person before the Inquiring Authority or otherwise fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of this Regulation, the Inquiring Authority may hold the inquiry ex-parte.

(21) (a) Where a Disciplinary Authority competent to impose any of the penalties specified in clauses (i) to (viii) of Regulation-18 but not competent to impose any of the penalties specified in clauses (ix) and (x) of regulation-18 has itself inquired into or causes to be inquired into the articles of any charge and that Authority, having regard to its own findings or having regard to its decision or any of the findings of any Inquiring Authority appointed by it, is of the opinion that the penalties specified in clauses (ix) and (x) of Regulation-18 should be imposed on the employee that Authority shall forward the records of the inquiry to such Disciplinary Authority as is competent to impose the last mentioned penalties.

(b) The Disciplinary Authority to which the records are so forwarded may act on the evidence on the record or may, if it is of the opinion that further examination of any of the witnesses is necessary in the interest of justice, recall the witness and examine, cross-examine and re-examine the witness and may impose on the Corporation servant such penalty as it may deem fit in accordance with these Regulations.

(22) Whenever any Inquiring Authority, after having heard and recorded the whole or any part of the evidence in an inquiry ceases to exercise jurisdiction therein, and is succeeded by another Inquiring Authority which has and which exercises such jurisdiction, the Inquiring Authority so succeeding may act on the evidence so recorded by its predecessor or partly recorded by its predecessor and partly recorded by itself.

Provided that if the succeeding Inquiring Authority is of the opinion that further examination of any of the witnesses whose evidence has already been recorded is necessary in the interest of justice, it may recall examine cross-examine and re-examine any such witnesses as herein before provided.

(23) (i) After the conclusion of the inquiry, a report shall be prepared and it shall contain-

- (a) The articles of charge and the statement of the imputations of misconduct or misbehavior;
- (b) The defense of the Corporation servant in respect of each article of charge;
- (c) An assessment of the evidence in respect of each article or charge;
- (d) The findings on each article of charge and the reasons therefore.

Explanation: If in the opinion of the Inquiring Authority the proceeding of the inquiry establish any article of charge different from the original articles of the charge, it may record its findings on such article of charge;

Provided that the findings on such article of charge shall not be recorded unless the Corporation servant has either admitted the facts on which such article of charge is based or has had a reasonable opportunity of defending may record its findings on such article of charge;

(ii) The Inquiring Authority, where it is not itself the Disciplinary Authority, shall forward to the Disciplinary Authority the records of inquiry which shall include-

- (a) The report prepared by it under clause (i);
- (b) The written statement of defence, if any, submitted by the Corporation servant;
- (c) The oral and documentary evidence produced in the course of the inquiry.
- (d) Written briefs, if any, filed by the Presenting Officer or the Corporation servant or both during the course of the inquiry; and
- (e) The orders if any made by the Disciplinary Authority and the Inquiring Authority in regard to the inquiry

(24) The Disciplinary Authority if it is not itself the Inquiring Authority may, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, remit the case to the Inquiring Authority for further inquiry and report and the Inquiring Authority shall thereupon proceed to hold the further inquiry according to the provisions of this Regulation as far as may be.

(25) The Disciplinary Authority shall, if it disagrees with the findings of the Inquiring Authority on any article of charge, record its reasons for such dis-agreements and record its own findings on such charge, if the evidence on record is sufficient for the purpose.

(26) If the Disciplinary Authority having regard to its findings on all or any of the articles of charge is of the opinion that one or more of the penalties specified in Regulation-18 should be imposed on the Corporation servant, it shall make an order imposing such penalty.

24. Summary procedure for imposing minor penalties in certain cases:- (1) Summary proceedings may be held by the Disciplinary Authority as provided in Sub-Regulation (2) in cases –

(a) Where a Corporation servant is caught red-handed having committed or while committing any act of misconduct or misbehavior;(b) where there is obvious evidence of misconduct or misbehavior.

(b) Where there is obvious evidence of misconduct or misbehavior.

(2) The Disciplinary Authority may hold summary proceedings under this Regulation on the spot and take a decision on the evidence available after charge sheeting of the Corporation servant concerned and after giving him an opportunity to make a statement.

25. Circumstances to be taken into consideration for imposition of penalties:-Without prejudice to the provisions of any law for the time being in force any Corporation servant who is found guilty of any act of misconduct or misbehavior shall be liable to one or more of the penalties specified in Regulation-18 according to the gravity of the misconduct or misbehavior and also on his past record.

26. Communication of orders:- The orders made by the Disciplinary Authority shall be communicated to the Corporation servant who shall also be supplied with a copy of the report of the inquiry, if any, held by the Disciplinary Authority and a copy of its finding on each article of charge, or where the Disciplinary Authority is not the Inquiring Authority a copy of the report of the Inquiring Authority and a statement of the findings of the Disciplinary Authority together with brief reasons for its disagreement, if any, with the findings of the Inquiring Authority.

27. Common proceedings : -(1) Where two or more Corporation servants are concerned in any case, the Corporation or any other Authority competent to impose the penalty of dismissal from service on all such Corporation servants may make an order directing that disciplinary action against all of them may be taken in common proceeding.

Note: (1)If the Authorities competent to impose the penalty of dismissal on such Corporation servants are different, an order for taking Disciplinary action in a common proceeding may be made by the highest of such Authorities with the consent of the others.

(2) Any such order shall specify-

(i) The authority which may function as the Disciplinary Authority for the purpose of such common proceedings;

(ii) The penalties specified in Regulation-18 which such Disciplinary Authority shall be competent to impose;

(iii) Whether the procedure laid down in Regulation-22 or Regulation-23 shall be followed in the proceedings.

28. Special procedure in certain cases :-Notwithstanding anything contained in Regulations - 22 to 27.

(i) Where any penalty is imposed on a Corporation servant on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction on a criminal charge; or

(ii) Where the Disciplinary Authority is satisfied for reasons to be recorded by it in writing that it is not reasonably practicable to hold an inquiry in the manner provided in these Regulations, the Disciplinary Authority may consider the circumstances of the case and make such orders thereon as it deems fit.

29. Orders against which on appeal lies :- No appeal shall lie against-

- (i) Any order made by the Corporation;
- (ii) Any order of an interlocutory nature of a step-in aid for the final disposal of a Disciplinary proceeding, other than an order of suspension;
- (iii) Any order passed by an Inquiring Authority in the course of an inquiry under Regulation-23.

30. Orders against which appeal lies: -Subject to the provision of Regulation-29 Corporation Servant may prefer an appeal against all or any of the following orders, namely:-

- (i) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under Regulation-21;
- (ii) An order imposing any of the penalties specified in Regulation-18 whether made by the Disciplinary Authority or by any Appellate Authority;
- (iii) An order enhancing any penalty imposing under Regulation-34.

Explanation:- In this Regulation the expression “Corporation Servant” includes a person who has ceased to be in the Corporation Service.

31. Appellate Authorities:- (1) A Corporation servant, including a person who has ceased to be a Corporation servant, may prefer an appeal against any of the orders specified in Regulation-30 to the Authority specified in this behalf either in the schedule or by a General or Special order of the Corporation or where no such Authority is specified: -

- (i) Where such Corporation servant is or was a Class-I or Class-II servant-
 - (a) to the Appointing Authority, where the order appealed against is made by an Authority subordinate to it; or
 - (b) to the Corporation where such order is made by any other Authority;
 - (ii) Where such Corporation servant is Class-III or Class-IV servant, to the Authority to which the Authority making the order appealed against is immediately subordinate.
- (2) notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-Regulation-(1)
- (i) an appeal against the order in a common proceeding under Regulation-27 shall lie to the Authority to which the Authority functioning as the Disciplinary Authority for the purpose of that proceeding is immediately subordinate.
 - (ii) where the person who made the order appealed against becomes by virtue of his subsequent appointment or otherwise, the Appellate Authority in respect of such order, an appeal against such order shall lie to the Authority to which such person is immediately subordinate.

32. Period of limitation for appeals: -No appeal preferred under these Regulations shall be entertained unless such appeal is preferred within a period of forty-five days from the date on which a copy of the order appealed against is delivered to the appellant;

Provided that the Appellate Authority may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period, if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal in time.

33. Form and contents of appeal:-(1) Every person preferring an appeal shall do so separately and in his own name.

(2) The appeal shall be presented to the authority to whom the appeal lies, a copy being forwarded by the appellant to the authority which made the order appealed against. It shall contain all material statements and arguments on which the appellant relies, shall not contain any disrespectful or improper language, and shall be complete in itself.

(3) The Authority which made the order appealed against shall, on receipt of the copy of the appeal, forward the same with its comments thereon together with the relevant records to the Appellant Authority without any avoidable delay, and without waiting for any direction from the Appellant Authority.

34. Consideration of appeal:-

(1) In the case of an appeal against an order of suspension under Regulation-21 the Appellate Authority shall consider whether in the light of the provisions of the said Regulation, and having regard to the circumstances of the case the order of suspension is justified or not and confirm or revoke the order accordingly.

(2) In the case of an appeal against an order imposing any of the penalties specified in Regulation-18 or enhancing any penalty imposed under the said Regulation, the Appellate Authority shall consider-

(a) whether the procedure laid down in these Regulations has been complied with, and if not, whether such non compliance has resulted in the failure of justice;

(b) whether the findings of the Disciplinary Authority are warranted by the evidence on the record; and

(c) whether the penalty or the enhanced penalty imposed is adequate, inadequate or severe;

(i) confirming enhancing, reducing or setting aside the penalty; or

(ii) remitting the case of the Authority which imposed or enhanced the penalty or to any other Authority with such direction as it may deem fit in the circumstance of the case;

Provided that-

(i) if the enhanced penalty which the Appellate Authority proposes to impose is one of the penalties specified in clauses (ix) and (x) of Regulation-18 and an inquiry under Regulation-23 has not already been held in the case the Appellate Authority shall, subject to the provisions of Regulation-28 itself hold such inquiry or direct that such inquiry be held in accordance with the provisions of Regulation-23 and thereafter, on a consideration of the proceedings of such inquiry, make such orders as it may deem fit;

(ii) if the enhanced penalty which the Appellate Authority proposes to impose is one of the penalties specified in clauses (ix) and (x) of Regulation-18 and an inquiry under Regulation-23 has already been held in the case, the Appellate Authority shall make such order as it deem fit; and

(iii) no order imposing an enhanced penalty shall be made in any case unless the appellant has been given a reasonable opportunity as far as may be in accordance with the provisions of Regulation-22 of making a representation against such enhanced penalty.

35. Revision

(1) notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations:-

(i) the Corporation or

(ii) any other Authority specified in this behalf by the Corporation by a general or special order and within such time as may be prescribed in such general or special order may at any time on its own motion call for the records of any inquiry and revise any order made under these Regulations or under the Rules or Standing Orders or other provisions repealed by Regulation-39 from which an appeal is allowed but from which no appeal has been preferred or from which no appeal is allowed and may-

(a) confirm, modify or set aside the orders; or

(b) confirm, reduce, enhance or set aside the penalty imposed by the order, or impose any penalty where no penalty has been imposed, or

(c) remit the case to the Authority which made the order or to any other Authority directing such Authority to make such further inquiry as it may consider proper in the circumstances of the case; or

(d) Pass such other orders as it may deem fit;

Provided that no order imposing or enhancing any penalty, shall be made by any Revising Authority unless the Corporation Servant concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity of making a representation against the penalty proposed and where it is proposed. to impose any of the penalties specified in Clause (ix) or (x) of Regulation-18 or to enhance the penalty imposed by the order sought to be revised to any of the penalties specified in these clauses, no such penalty shall be imposed except after the inquiry, in the manner laid down in Regulation-23.

(2) No proceeding for revision shall be commenced until after:-

(i) the expiry of the period of limitation for an appeal, or

(ii) the disposal of the appeal, where any such appeal has been preferred.

(3) Whereas it is expedient to substitute a new „schedule“ in the place of the existing schedule as set out in the KSRTC servants (Conduct and Discipline) (Amendment) regulations, 1992 for the “Schedule” to the Principal Regulations.

Now, therefore, the revised „Schedule“ shall be substituted in the place of the ‘Schedule’ enumerated in the KSRTC Servants (Conduct and Discipline) (Amendment) Regulations, 1981.

(4) Disposal of pending Disciplinary proceedings:-

(a) Notwithstanding anything contained in the schedule to the KSRTC servants (Conduct and Discipline) (Amendment) Regulations, 1981, the provisions contained in the amended KSRTC servants (Conduct and Discipline) (Amendment) Regulations, 1992 shall be applicable to all the pending Disciplinary, Appellate, proceedings before the Disciplinary and Appellate and Authorities as if the Principal Regulations [The KSRTC Servants (Conducts and Discipline) Regulations, 1971] were in force and nothing in these Regulations shall operate to deprive any employee to whom these Regulations apply, any right which had accrued to him under these Regulations. Any Disciplinary proceedings,

Appeal, Revision Petition at or preferred after the commencement of these Regulations against an order passed before such commencement shall be considered and disposed off as far as may be, under these Regulations.

(b) All Applications, Disciplinary proceedings and Appellate proceedings before the commencement of these K.S.R.T.C. servants (Conduct and Discipline) (Amendment) Regulations, 1992 shall stand transferred to the appropriate Disciplinary and Appellate Authorities as specified in the KSRTC servants (Conduct and Discipline) (Amendment) Regulations, 1992 and shall be disposed off as if these proceedings had been instituted or commenced by or before such Disciplinary or Appellate Authority.

36. Service of orders notices etc.:-Every order, notice and other process made or issued under these Regulations shall be served in person on the Corporation Servant concerned or communicated to him by registered post.

37. Power to relax time limit and to condone delay:-Save as other wise provided under these Regulations the Authority competent under these Regulations the Authority competent under these Regulations to make any order may for good and sufficient reasons or if sufficient cause is shown, extend the time specified under these Regulations or condone any delay.

38. Operation of other enactments:-Wherein the case of any Corporation servant, the provisions of any Enactments or Rule, or order made there under regulates any matter, in respect of which, provision is made in this part, such matter shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this part, be dealt in accordance with the provisions of the said Enactments, Rule or order.

Part-IV

MISCELLANEOUS

39. Repeal and savings :- The Mysore Government Road Transport Department Standing Orders, the B.T.S. Standing Orders, the Bombay State Road Transport Employee' Service Regulations, the Hyderabad Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules and the Rules contained in the Nizam's State Railways Establishment Code which were adopted by the Corporation in its Resolution No.8 in so far as they relate to Conduct and Disciplinary proceedings and imposition of penalties, provided for in these Regulations, are hereby repealed:

Provided that-

(a) such repeal shall not affect the previous operation of the said Standing Orders, Regulations or Rules or any order made or anything done, or any action taken, there under;

(b) any proceedings under the said Standing Orders, Regulations, or Rules pending at the commencement of these Regulations shall be continued and disposed of as far as may be, in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations, as if such proceedings were commenced under these Regulations.

(2) Nothing in these Regulations shall be construed as depriving any person to whom these Regulations apply, of any right of appeal which had accrued to him under the Standing Orders, Regulations, Rules or other provisions in force before the commencement of these Regulations.

(3) An appeal pending at the commencement of these Regulations against an order made before such commencement shall be considered and orders thereon shall be made, in accordance with those Regulations, as if such orders were made and the appeals were preferred under these Regulations.

(4) As from the commencement of these Regulations, any appeal or application for revision against any orders made before such commencement shall be preferred or made under these Regulations as if such orders were made under these Regulations.

Provided that nothing in these Regulations shall be construed as reducing any period of limitation for any appeal or revision provided by any Standing Orders, Regulations or Rules in force before the commencement of these Regulations.

40. Removal of doubts:

If any doubt arises as to the interpretation of any of the provisions of these Regulations, the matter shall be referred to the Corporation or such other Authority as may be specified by the Corporation a general or special order and the Corporation or such other Authority shall decide the same.
